ILLUSTRATED NEWS OF THE WEEK - A SPECIAL TRIBUNE FEATURE

THE BEST OF THE WEEK'S INTERESTING NEWS PICTURES

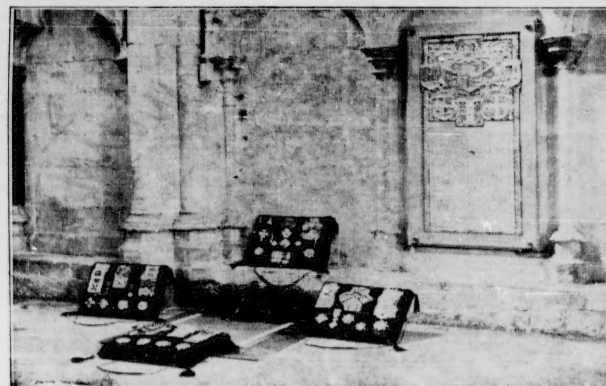

BRITISH BOROUGH SENDS JUBILEE GIFT TO VANCOUVER

Photograph shows the scene in Richmond Town Hall, near London, when the picture of Peter-William, painted by S. Watson Turnbull, was unveiled. It is a gift from the Borough of Richmond to the City of Vancouver on the occasion of its Jubilee Celebrations, when it will be presented. The painting can be seen on the left of the picture, and the Lord Mayor of London (extreme right), is speaking after he had been presented with the picture by the Mayor of Richmond, which he will in turn hand to Vancouver in the course of his forthcoming state visit to the British Columbia city.

AUSTRIAN BLOODLESS COUP STRIKES BLOW AT ITALY

When President Miklos named Chancellor Kurt von Schuschnigg an official dictator of Austria, it was tantamount to a bloodless coup d'état to oust Fascist-inclined forces of Prince von Starhemberg. Schuschnigg's first official act was to freeze Starhemberg, former vice-chancellor and leader of a powerful military group, out of the new government. A serious blow appears to have been struck in Mussolini's direction in the eclipse of the pro-Italian Heimwehr leader. Starhemberg had been a strong factor in linking Italy with Austria, and his dismissal emphasizes the Austrian Democrats' disapproval of Starhemberg's telegram to Mussolini recently, congratulating him on the occupation of Addis Ababa. Above is a picture of the Heldenplatz in Vienna during a great memorial meeting in honor of Dollfus, while inset, left, is Dr. Kurt Schuschnigg, new ruler of Austria, and, right, a picture of Prince von Starhemberg, taken when he visited Rome after attending the funeral of King George.

NEW EVIDENCE AGAIN BRINGS "BLACK TOM" SABOTAGE INTO PROMINENCE

New evidence, intended to show wholesale "false, fraudulent and perjured testimony" by past and present members of the German government, was presented by the United States government in seeking to re-open the "Black Tom" and "Kingsland" war-time "sabotage" cases. An affidavit by James Larkin, Irish labor leader, which a voluminous brief described as making "specific references to certain details on and methods employed in destroying the Black Tom terminal, and implicating a number of prominent Germans, formed a part of the new evidence. In the affidavit Larkin alleged Captain Boy-Ed, then attached to the German embassy at Washington, approached him and, the United States brief said, "the picture he (Larkin) paints of the intrigues of Boy-Ed, Karl Bump, Bernberg and Eckhardt is important as additional proof of the misleading and perjured testimony of these and other official German witnesses." The United States has claimed $50,000,000 against the German government for property damage and loss of lives in the explosion.
